at City Hospital.

"Chicken" Jones, one of the habitues of the Police Court, is, perhaps, on his last sick bed. He is under creatment at the City Hospital, but there are little hopes of his recovery. His case is a standing warning to those who drink too deep and too long. His trouble comes from drink. But he is a changed man, and is now a believer, and, if he loes get wel, will be a better citizen, Mental Aberration.

Ar old negro woman named Martha Jones is under treatment at the City Hospital for mental aberration. Dear Miss Word: I am sorry my letter have not reached you as I expected. In it I acknowledge and thank you all for the box you sent me, which was received two or three days before Christmas. I also told you the extra charge I had to bonds for twelve months, and Willie also told you the extra charge I had to pay, it was put off at Forster, Minn, and I had to order it to be sent to Beveridge. The charges were 55 conts, and from Boveridge by stage $2. The box was opened, but I taink all the contents were in it. I was very pleased and thankful to get its description of the same of the sam such good and useful things frm you all such good and useful things trm you all for my people. Monday before Christians Indian men went after evergreens for the church. As we are living among the pines and so forth, consequently, the men did not go very far to get the very best evergreens. Tuesday before Christians Indians men trim the church and they did it beautifully, ursays two Indian indians men trim the cauren and they did it beautifully. Lursday, two Indian men went out in the woods and got very best tree they could find. In the afternoon the people trim the tree, Miss Styles, our last teacher, overseeing the trimming the tree. The local council of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew met in the chapel of Grace Church Monday night at 8 o'clock. Delegations from all of the various church Brotherhood chapters were present; also many of the clergy.

A most enthusiastic meeting was had. Mr. Calvin Cook was elected secretary of the local council, and a most stirring and earnest address was delivered by the city missionary. Rev. Dr. Moncure. The carnest, practical and graphic address left its impress on the order.

Mr. Lewis Callett Williams, the president of the council, called upon the secretary, Mr. Brockenbrough, for reports, which were read. The benediction was made by Rev. Dr. Evans, of Monimental Church. A large number of clergy and carnest laymen were present.

WORKING FOR VIRGINIA

Real Estate Men and Board of Agriculture to Co operate in Grand Movement.

MEETING HERE ON FRIDAY

Plans for Publication of Virginia Book Will be Definitely Decided Upon.

The concerted effort of the real estate men of Virginia to bring to the attention of homeseekers everywhere the advantages to be found in this State is now taking definite form and fruits are row taking definite form and fruits are scon to be seen.

On Friday of this week Judgo J. C. Shepherd, of Fluvanna county; Coloned Miles Cary, of Richmond, and Mr. W. C. Warthen, division passenger agent of the Chesapeake and Ohlo Rallway Company, will appear before the State Board of Agriculture and suggest a practicable plan by which Tae board and the Virginia Real Estate Association may unite in the publication in book form of such material as will be of winning information to those in every part of the country who are thinking of changing their places of abode. It is well known that Mr. Koiner, commissioner of agriculture, is anxious to do all in his power to advertise the State's attractiveness as a home and will unite with the Real Estate Association to that end most heartily.

tate Association to that end most heartily.

Members of the Executive Committee of the Real Estate Association held a conference at Murphy's Hotel Monday ovening and were to have appeared before the Board of Agriculture yesterday, but the president of the board could not be present, and the body decided to postpone the meeting until Friday.

ALL CO-OPERATING.

At the conference of real estate men Monday ovening, those present were: Judge Shepherd. President A. P. Bibb, of Charlottesville; Colonel Cary, Paul Scherer, of Roanoke, representing the Norfolk and Western Rallroad, Mr. Wilbur McCoy, representing the Atlantic Ccast Line Rallroad, and Mr. Warthen, representing the Chesapeake and Ohio Hallway Company. Letters were received from Mr. R. B. Cooke, of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Rallway Company, and Major M. V. Richards, of the Southern Rallway Company, heartily endorsing the plane outlined for tringing the State before the country as one of the most delightful and profittily endorsing the plans outlined for bringing the State before the country as one of the most delightful and profitone of the most delignitude on the one of the most designful and profiled places to live to be found on the globe.

The chairman of the Advertising Committee is Mr. John Stewart Walker, of Lynchburg, one of the clearest minded and energetic real estate men of the State. Mr. Walker has sent out to prominent men in every section of the State more than a thousand forms of questions with blanks for answers. He asks all who receive these forms to give them their attention at once and return the answers promptly. An expert will be secured to classify the data thus gained. The plan is for the book to be issued with the report of the commissioner of agriculture and thus given very wide circulation. Then another book especially representing the ends desired by the Real Estate Association will be made from the forms of the commissioner's report, and the association will send this wherever they think it will do good. The results of such brogdeast and attractive anvertising cannot fall'tip be of untold advantage to the State. A Washington official in the Agricultural Department wrote Commissioner Koiner that he had more requests for data about Virginia lands than any other State in the Union and had less to give them, Illustrating how sadily such a book as the real estate men are to get out is needed.

A group of anti-machine Republicans, composed of men of more or less prominence in that wing of the party, formed a circle in the lobby of the Powhatan Holel for some time last night, and while they did not care to give out to the public the subject under advisement, it is pretty well understood that they were going over the situation with reference to their efforts to "unhorse" the old leaders in the coming State convention, to be held in Norfolk in March. When the little conference was over, Senator J. N. Harman, of Tazawell, who was in the party, and who has a decided vein of humor in his make-up, said to a representative of The Times-Dispatch, in reply to a question; "We were just plotting a little against the whites."

In the party were Senator Harman, ex-Postmaster Otts H. Russell. Mr. Edgar Allan, Jr., ex-Cily Chairman M. M. Williams, and Delegates Griffith, of Russell, and Hoge, of Scott, all of whom are anti-organization men.
